Summary

With a desire to have a greater impact on the lives of individuals and society as a whole, Mary co-founded Experienced Resources, LLC a Bloomington based firm that matches health care leaders with over twenty years experience to special projects or interim management assignments in the areas of operations, nursing, human resources, marketing, finance, information technology and ancillary services.

Experienced Resources' unique niche has become increasingly attractive to the health care community it serves, and Mary is proud to have created an opportunity to meet the needs of health care organizations by matching them with the wisdom and experience of individuals in the second half of their careers.

Background

Mary has more than 17 years of experience in health care operations and human resources. She received her formal education in human resource management at Cardinal Stritch University and health care management at the University of Central Florida. Mary a member of the Women's Health Leadership Trust (TRUST), Minnesota Medical Group Management Association (MMGMA), Minnesota Hospital Association (MHA), and Healthcare Human Resources Association of Minnesota (HHRAM).

Awards

Mary was named the 2010 Emerging Woman Business Owner of the Year by the National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO). The award recognizes an enterprising NAWBO member's potential for long-term success and growth. Consideration for the award is given to a member who has founded or is growing a small business featuring a creative and innovative product or service, has survived various challenges, and has at least a three year track record.
